FOR ALL TIMESoldiers Mutiny and Throw Down
Their Arms.HAVE NO AMMUNITION TO CHECK THE JAPS.Forces Defy Their Commanders and Refuse to Longer Prolong the Battle—The Country Is Perfectly Helpless and a Reign of Terror Rules Peking and Other Cities.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 29.—[Special]—China is helpless. The Chinese who have been opposing the advance of the Japs have mutinied and are throwing away their arms because they haven't ammunition. A reign of terror sways Peking and elsewhere.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—A dispatch from Shanghai says it is reported there that the Japanese have succeeded in entering the Chinese province of Manchuria, and that they are advancing upon the capital, Moukden.

It is also said that fighting has taken place between the invaders and the Chinese at a town between that city and the frontier.

The engagement is said to have ended in a decisive victory for the Japanese, who then established themselves in the position previously occupied by the Chinese troops.

No details of this reported battle are given.

Russia and China's Agreement.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—A dispatch from Paris to the Exchange Telegraph company says its correspondent there learns on the best authority that in July last a provisional agreement was effected between Russia and China in regard to the future action of Russia in the Pamirs. It is agreed by the two countries that the forces of neither power should pass the Sarikul range.

This agreement re-establishes friendly relations between Russia and China, and has an important bearing upon the fortunes of China in the present struggle.

Russia, however, the dispatch adds, is not likely to maintain a friendly attitude toward China without substantial returns.

FATAL FIRE AT NANAIMO.

Two Lives Lost and Property Valued at $100,000 Destroyed.

NANAIMO, B. C., Sept. 29.—Two men were burned to death, two other men and a little girl were badly injured and $100,000 worth of property destroyed by a fire that broke out here at 5 o'clock yesterday morning. The fire started at the corner of Wharf and Commercial streets in the Royal hotel, which was destroyed. Pat Mayce, bootblack, and a bartender known as "Fritz," employees in the hotel, were burned to death. Three guests were badly burned. The flames spread along Wharf street, destroying the fire hall, Nanaimo hotel, C. E. Stevenson's dry goods store and five small frame buildings. That the newer part of the town was not completely wiped out was due to the absence of wind and heroic work of the volunteer fire brigade.

DEB'S CASE CLOSED AT LAST.

Final Arguments in the Contempt Proceedings are Made.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: Special inquiry has been made this week at all commercial centers regarding the state of retail trade. Wide diversity appears in different trades. The main facts disclosed are: First, marked improvement in the last month and a considerable excess over the business done a year ago, particularly in the necessities of life. But, second, it appears that the volume of trade at present is on the whole considerably less than in a normal year at most points, and in the more important trades is apparently about 20 per cent smaller than in September, 1892.

The depression in prices of farm products will have some influence. Unprecedented records have been made in cotton and wheat, though as to wheat only in contracts for future delivery in which the prices are the lowest ever made. The available stocks are about 15,000,000 bushels greater than a year ago, and western receipts for the week were 5,252,716 bushels, against 6,191,034 last year, and since Aug. 1, 51,000,000 bushels, against 38,003,000 last year. The Atlantic exports for the week and since Aug. 1 have been about a third smaller than last year, but the fall in prices during the weeks has been 1.75 cents. Cotton on the spot is lower at 6.44 cents than at any other time since 1849, and quotation then did not mean what they do now, while the nearest option has been quoted at 6.04 cents, which is below all previous records. Even at the close the fall for the week is one quarter. An estimate of 3,600,000 bales minimum this year has influenced the market, but would receive less attention if stocks in sight were not heavy, while all agree that this crop is likely to exceed the world's requirements of American cotton.

It is encouraging that the speculation in corn has broken and the price has fallen 5 cents, less gloomy estimates than those of the department having gained general acceptance. It is now supposed that the yield is not far from 1,500,000,000 bushels, which will compel much economy in feeding, but speculation in pork has also broken, and the price has fallen 75 cents, while lard has declined half a cent.

The iron industry shows a shrinkage of demand and the prices quoted are but little above the lowest this year. The boot and shoe manufacture continues to lead others in comparative activity and shipments from Boston for the month have been 338,097 cases, against 222,623 last year and 328,106 in 1892.

Failures are few and small for the week, liabilities amounting to $3,273,285, of which $2,382,313 were of manufacturing and $2,575,112 of trading concerns. The failures during the week have been 235 in the United States, against 334 last year, and 55 in Canada, against 33 last year.

A BIG FIRE SWEEP
STILLWATER, MINN.WHOLE NORTH PART OF THE CITY THREATENED.

Blaze Has Not Been Equalled Since the Great Prison Conflagration of Five Years Ago—Help Sent From St. Paul and the Flames Were Finally Controlled.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 29.—Word was received from Stillwater, Minn., midnight last night, to the effect that a disastrous fire was in progress there and it was still spreading. Fortunately the wind was driving the flames away from the business center of the city, but the entire north end was in danger. At one time the fire was within 600 yards of the Minnesota State prison. The fire broke out about 10:30, and with the heavy wind it got beyond the control of the department at the start, and as yet no estimate can be given of the damage. Among the buildings destroyed are the power-house of the electric light company and the mill of the Stillwater Manufacturing company. Minneapolis and St. Paul were asked to send aid and several companies from St. Paul were sent to Stillwater. The telegraph wires are all down as a result of the fire and all communication is to be had by telephone. The Stillwater Manufacturing company's plant was a large planing mill. At 1:05 word was received from Stillwater that the fire department had the fire under control. The buildings of the Thresher company and Street Railway company were saved. Several residences and their contents were destroyed besides the manufacturing plant. It was the worst fire Stillwater has seen for years, and was a reminder of the great prison fire of five years ago.

Latterly the authorities have had reasons to suspect the sincerity of his conversion, and the matter being brought to the attention of the court, an order was issued yesterday directing that the anarchist be again confined strictly to the prison rules, which had been relaxed in his favor. THEY DIFFER AS TO TRADE.

Volume of Business Still Below that of a Normal Year.

CHICAGO, Sept. 29.—W. W. Erwin finished the Debs contempt case before Judge Woods yesterday on behalf of the defendant. Mr. Erwin started out with a sensational preamble to his speech. He said that he intended to say something that was quite unusual and extraordinary in court parlance. He was in the labor line, and he had done enough to believe that he was trusted by laboring-men. What he wanted to say was that the judge had been fair in his trial. His side had the courage to tell this to the judge and to his face. This was rarely done in courts, and Mr. Erwin thanked the Lord and thanked the judge that this could be said.

Then Mr. Erwin went back to original principles as defined in the story of Moses, and went rather deeply into theological questions. After twenty minutes' consideration of these questions Mr. Erwin got down to the American revolution and compared it, in principle, to the recent railroad strike. It had been urged that there was redress in this Pullman strike. There was no redress in this case. There was no redress whatever. If there were any one from whom redress could be had, he slept. If there was principle in any human soul from which redress could be had, it slept. It was all sleep. There were people starving—people working at starvation wages. Was the sword of avarice a crime? Was starvation murder?

Mr. Erwin spoke in a discursive way, touching here and there on the points of the big fight. He described the whole people demanding that Pullman give redress to his starving poor. But Pullman slept. The entire press of the country, the pulpit and the people raised their voices and cried out that Pullman give redress to his starving poor. But there was no redress. It slept.

This case, Mr. Erwin said, would not be investigated by the light of Pullman's candles. It would be investigated under the light of the sun god's lamp.

Just before the noon hour the court adjourned to give Mr. Walker an opportunity to bring into court certain papers which he wished to use in the elaboration of his argument. When court reassembled in the afternoon Mr. Walker continued his address.

When Mr. Walker concluded Attorney Geeting was given leave to file a further brief in answer to some new points he had raised against the defendants.

Judge Woods informed the lawyers that he would notify the counsel when he is ready to deliver the decision.

FOUR LIVES CRUSHED OUT.

He was sitting alongside the track waiting for a car to be loaded by the men, when, without a word of warning, the roof of the gang way fell in within three feet of him. He ran to the head of the slope and gave the alarm. It is feared the bodies of the intombed men can not be reached for several days.

Year's Disbursement

PLANS FOR A FUNERAL AND A FREE INQUEST

DEMOCRATIC OBSEQUES DIS- CUSSED BY REPUBLICANS.

Richard O'Donnell Will Perform the Coroners Duties on that Occasion Without Charge—Brisk and Suggestive Speeches from County Candidates and Others Last Night.

It was at last night's meeting of the Young Men's Republican club. Everybody in the room tried to put in a prediction about Upham's majority, and the circumstances of the democratic funeral in Rock county. Richard O'Donnell said that as bids seemed to be in order he would agree to sit as coroner, free of charge, when the inquest on the democratic candidates was held. George Brink, of the Fifth ward, remarked that before long money might be needed for campaign expenses.

"I move that a committee start out right now," said he. "I have contributed six or seven hundred dollars this year to the democratic fund in the way of reduced salary; a good many others are in the same fix. I guess we will all be willing to give five or ten dollars to the republican fund." [Cheers and cries of "That's so."]

President H. S. Sloan called the meeting to order at 7:30 and E. D. McGowan was chosen temporary secretary. John Lempke was appointed as a member of the Second ward committee, to succeed B. F. Nowlan, who had moved into another ward.

The Spooner meeting next Saturday was discussed, and it was moved that all the republican clubs in the county be invited to attend. This committee on entertainment of visitors was named: M. G. Jeffris, E. D. McGowan, W. A. Jackson, Ed. S. Putnam and T. W. Goldin. A meeting of the executive and other committee was called for Monday evening, at President Sloan's office.

Crisp Bits of Good Sense.

O. D. Rowe, W. A. Jackson, W. J. McIntyre and Richard O'Donnell of the republican county ticket, were in the room and were called upon for remarks. They spoke briefly and to the point and were loudly cheered. Mr. McIntyre reminded his hearers of some of the democratic promises two years ago. He had never spoken of these promises to a democrat but once and that was when W. F. Vilas declared that the only way for the farmer to get dollar wheat was to elect the democratic candidates.

"I don't talk much in democratic meetings," said Mr. McIntyre, "but I did venture to ask him how the election of democrats would raise the price of wheat?"

"I will get to that point in just a moment," said Mr. Vilas confidently. "But he didn't get to it," said Mr. McIntyre, "and he hasn't gotten to it yet. He never will get to it either until a republican administration is in charge again." [Applause.]

Richard O'Donnell asked the young men of the club to remember that while the republican party had produced Lincoln, Grant, Sherman and Garfield it had plenty of great men alive today—Reed, McKinley and a host of others. The party would never need to rely for success upon what it had done in years gone by.

F. M. Marzluff uttered a warning against over-confidence. This was a republican year, he said, but it was not a year for republicans to sit back and neglect registration or fail in their missionary work. Neither was it a year for "roasting" other members of the party.

"The democrats teach us a good lesson on that," said he. "A democratic official may not know enough to pound sand but every democrat in town will insist that he is the prince of good fellows and has brains enough to stock a college."

Details Are Important.

Charles F. Yates said he believed as Marzluff did that there might be such a thing as too much confidence. His travel around the state had satisfied him, however, that there are many number of democrats who were wavering and who could be brought out into the light, if the right arguments were used.

E. D. McGowan emphasized the need of organization and attention to details. Mass meetings were all very well, he said but the enrolling of young men, the canvassing of cities and towns and the establishing of newly-naturalized voters must not be neglected. Along these lines, he thought, democrats often had the best of it—they went into politics as a business, while republicans made it a matter of principle.

President Sloan was called upon and made some pertinent suggestions as to campaign work. Young men's republican clubs should be organized in every school district and he hoped to see thriving organizations in all parts of the country before the campaign ended.

At the suggestion of several members the president announced another meeting of the club for next Friday night. At that time T. W. Goldin and other speakers will be present and the final report on the Spooner meeting Saturday night will be made. The finance committee suggested by George Brink was named as follows:

West side—F. F. Marzluff, W. A. Jackson and C. F. Yates.

East side—S. C. Burnham, Ed. S. Putnam, J. G. DeLong.

At large—George S. Brink.

THIEVES NOW SHOW THEIR TRACKS

Cutlery Burglars Have Been Seen in Several Places.

The trails of the hardware robbers who have been working the county, are beginning to appear. The latest clew was furnished by an engineer who drew a freight train Sunday morning. He had purchased a knife in Beloit of a tramp who seemed to be well supplied with all sorts and descriptions. The knife was brought up and examined by Mr. Baker, whose store in Evansville was robbed, and being partially satisfied that it was one from the stock stolen, went to Beloit, but the birds had flown.

The Evansville job was a good one. The thieves first broke into J. Evans & Sons' Carriage shop and procured a brace and bit. With this they bored holes around one of the panels in the side door and finished taking out the panel with the aid of a jack knife. Then they entered and helped themselves to about half the stock of jack knives and revolvers. They made their exit through the little aperture where they got in, which was just about large enough to admit an ordinary sized man.

MILTON AIDS THE ORPHON'S HOME.

Canvass of the Village Made By Rev. Mr. Woodmansee This Week.

MILTON, Sept. 28.—Rev. Mr. Woodmansee, representing the Children's Home, of Milwaukee, made a canvass of the village this week and secured considerable aid for that worthy institution. Milton was well represented at the Janesville races this week. The "Blue Diamonds" and Milton's best, known as the "Freaks" were to play the second game of their series Wednesday afternoon, but the latter failed to show up as a nine and the Diamonds played against a nine composed of "freaks" and volunteers. The Diamonds won by a score of 19 to 13, but it was not a good game on either side. It is very doubtful if the series of games is ever played. Will Tompkins is officiating as night operator for the St. Paul company at Whitewater at the present time. Rev. W. H. Summers is at Fort Howard attending conference. He will have a new charge this year.

Mrs. W. A. McHenry of Denison, Iowa, spent Wednesday and Thursday as the guest of her sister, Mrs. P. M. Gr. en. Captain Knills, of Whitewater, was in the village Tuesday. John M. Grier, of Milwaukee, who has charge of Uhllein Bros. trotting stock, was the guest of D. Williams this week. D. Walsh and wife came from their Iowa trip this week. Hon. Charles E. Estabrook, of Milwaukee, was a guest of Milton acquaintances Wednesday. E. L. Bingham, George Bacon, Everett Scott, D. Gray, J. H. Granger, S. Green and others from this locality, attended the Walworth county fair on Thursday.

Mrs. C. M. Bliss has gone to Montello to reside with her daughter. Mrs. I. A. Sowk is visiting friends and relatives at Onalaska. Mrs. Stella May of Fort Atkinson, visited with Milton relatives this week. Albert Barnhart and family now reside in this village. Charles Gleiter has bought the house which W. H. Walrath owned on College street. The latter has moved into the Baldwin house. Miss Walker of the college faculty, has been unable to hear her classes for some days on account of illness. J. N. Anderson, brother of J. C. Anderson, was here this week. He has gone to the University of Chicago and will attend the Divinity school. Mr. Anderson is a Milton college graduate. James Vincent has leased his farm to Charles Mickelson and intends to move into the village. Cards announcing the wedding of Robert R. Skinner and Miss Birdie P. Smith, of this village, on Wednesday next, are out.

WILCOX RUINS BLAZED AGAIN.

Hose Company Sent to Wet the Ashes Last Night.

The ruins of Friday morning's fire commenced to burn last night between 10 and 11 o'clock and the smoke and blaze frightened some of the timid people to such an extent that an appeal was made to the fire department. A hose company was sent to the scene, and the smoldering debris was given another wetting.

FALSEHOODS NAILED

BY W. H. UPHAM'S MEN

STORIES ABOUT COUPON BOOKS ARE GROUNDLESS.

Employees Make Affidavits Refuting the Pluck-Me-Store and Other Lies of the Democratic Papers—Uniform Prices to Workmen and Freedom as to Trading.

So many falsehoods have been printed by the democratic papers regarding the treatment of the employees of the Upham Manufacturing company, to the effect that the company forced coupon books upon its help in payment of wages, and then charged more for goods purchased at the company's store with these coupons than was charged for cash; that the employees of the company and Mansfield citizens generally feel disgusted and outraged. So far the denials of these campaign lies have been confined to statements of employees in newspaper interviews and to simple contradictions by citizens when asked about the matter. Now, however, in order to place the matter in a shape that can admit of no equivocation, and as a once-for-all refutation of these barefaced falsehoods, a committee representing the employees has gone before a notary public and each for himself has made an affidavit showing the falsity of these democratic charges. Most of the men who make the affidavits are themselves democrats. Hundreds of affidavits of the same kind could as easily be procured, but it was deemed sufficient to take the sworn statements of a few of those longest in the service of the company, as representing the general crew. The affidavits are as follows and explain themselves:

STATE OF WISCONSIN, ss.

Henry L. Brooks, Joseph O. Bruckert, H. J. Thuss, F. W. Luckenbach, Ed. Brackheimer and Knud Hattberg, each being first duly sworn on oath do hereby depose and say each for himself: I am an employee of the Upham Manufacturing Company of Marshfield, Wisconsin, of which company W. H. Upham is president. I have never been forced or solicited to take a scrip or coupon book from said company for wages due me, and I do not believe that any other employee has. I have always been able to get cash from said company, if it was due me, and I believe that every other employee has always been able to do the same.

I have traded more or less at the store of the Upham Manufacturing company and I have never found any difference in the purchasing power of scrip, coupon books or cash, and I do not believe there ever has been any difference. I believe that the goods sold at the store of the Upham Manufacturing company are just as good as are sold in other stores in the city, and that prices are just as low.

Never to my knowledge has the Upham Manufacturing company been sued by an employee for wages and never to my knowledge has there ever been a strike of the employees of said company; and I believe that wages paid by said company have always been as high as have been paid by any other company engaged in a similar business.

I brand as false the statement made in the Milwaukee Journal that the Upham Manufacturing company has ever charged its employees more for merchandise, flour and feed included, when paid for in scrip or coupon books, than when paid for in cash.

SOMETHING UNUSUAL.

It Sent a Thrill of Wonder Everywhere.

A Well known Woman is the Subject of Congratulation—She Has a Peculiarly Interesting Story to Tell the Public.

Such events as this are not often made public but they have occurred so frequently lately that they are attracting attention everywhere. Mrs. C. L. French, of Hardwick, Vt., has long suffered from a nervous complaint which has terribly injured her health.

It was brought on by overwork and that is just the way many of us are weakening our systems. If we do not take some means to prevent the fearful results of hard work and worry, we will surely fall into the same condition that Mrs. French did. Here is her remarkably interesting letter which it will well repay you to read:

"Three years ago I was completely prostrated from nervous trouble. I could not do anything. I was confined to my bed much of the time and was unable to attend to my business for three months. I had trouble with my stomach, my food distressing me constantly.

"I could not sleep for my whole nervous system was prostrated. My trouble was brought on by overwork and loss of sleep. After taking many remedies without avail, I commenced to use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy and found instant benefit from its use.

"I continued it until now when I can say that I am as well as I ever was. I certainly think this is the best medicine I ever knew of. I consider it a great thing to say that from so severe a case as mine to be restored to perfect health in so short a time is something quite unusual.

"I heartily recommend Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy to all, and wish every poor suffering person might use it.

It is impossible to express the good which this wonderful medicine is doing suffering humanity. It strengthens the nerves, invigorates the blood, regulates the action of the stomach, liver and bowels and kidneys, and cures disease. Try it in your own case and see how rapidly it gives you back your health and strength. It is purely vegetable and harmless, and was discovered by Dr. Greene, of 35 West 11th Street, New York City, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic disease. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

MESMERISM A SCIENCE.

Dr. Flint Will Prove to Janesville People That It Is More Than Imagination.

Dr. Flint and his daughter will give a performance in Mesmerism and Hypnotism at the Myers Grand each and every evening next week. Much has been written and said in regard to this eminent and scientific man. Some wonderful works of science have been portrayed as coming from his brain, and perhaps the half has not been said. At any rate we will see the doctor all next week.

He will, while here, use only volunteers each evening, and his determination is to show the citizens that mesmerism and hypnotism is really something emanating from a scientific brain. Three years ago, but little was known, as compared with today, about these two sciences. At the present time some of the best medical and scientific schools in America teach them, for instance, there is Professor McGill, of the University of Toronto, Canada, who is an ardent admirer of both and teaches them in his school of learning, and again, Professor Trampin, of the state university at Lawrence, Kansas, professor of psychology, pays a great deal of attention to hypnotism. Many instances can be named where these sciences have been beneficial. For example, we will call your attention to the Cook county, Ill., hospital where, during the past winter, some very difficult surgical operations were performed by the aid of hypnotism. Not a work on these two subjects were being published three years ago. Now you will find excellent works on both, in the best publishing houses in America, such as A. C. McClurg Publishing Co., Chicago and G. P. Putnam Sons, Philadelphia. Mesmerism and hypnotism are like any other sciences, most any of which can be used for "fake" and "illegitimate" purposes, but where such is the case, you will invariably find that it is an unprincipled person and one of no education who is putting the "fake ideas" to work. Dr. Flint is really a scientific man and when he appears before a Janesville audience next week the verdict will be in his favor every time.

CITY FIRE LIMITS SHOULD BE LARGER

MANY PEOPLE FAVOR A CHANGE OF THAT KIND.

Talk May Become Strong Enough to Prompt the Council to Amend the Ordinance—The Old Limit and the Outlines For the Proposed New Scheme.

There is considerable talk of extending the fire limits, and it may become of sufficient force to prompt the council in amending the ordinance. The fire limits as now established include all the property on the east side within a line commencing at the center of Prospect avenue at Rock river, thence east to North Bluff street, south on Bluff to North First street, east on North First to Division, south on Division to East Milwaukee street, south on Bluff to Court street, west on Court street to the river. On the west side the fire limits include the property included within the line extended on Court street across the river to Pleasant street, west on Pleasant street to River street, north on River to Dodge street, west on Dodge street to Academy, north on Academy to Wall street, east on Wall street to the river. The talk is also to make Pleasant street, from the bridge to Academy street, the southern boundary on the west side, which would include the new high school building. On the east side the talk is to extend the line on Main street, commencing at Court, south to South First or Second street, more probably to South First, and thus west to the river, thus including the two blocks between the river and court house park.

WOOD NOT ON THE COMPROMISE.

Colored Elocutionist Wants $5,000 For Not Sitting at the "First Table."

Charles Wood, the colored elocutionist who read in Janesville last June has returned to Beloit college. He says he has sued the transportation company which refused him equal privileges with the white people on the boat, for $5,000 and that the trial will take place in about one month. The company offered to compromise by giving Mr. Wood $3,000 but his lawyer refused and the matter will be settled in court. Mr. Wood thinks that there is no doubt but that he will recover the full amount.

ADAPTABLE GOWNS.

The Same Dress May Do Duty For Several Occasions.

The almost endless variety of pretty dress accessories in fashion nowadays is a wonderful help to a scantily filled purse. With their aid the same gown may be made to do duty many times in different characters. Take, for instance, a soft textured, silky striped black crepon, lined throughout with thin black alpaca. Have it made with the round cut of skirt and a plain, tight fitting bodice, the upper part of the sleeves one large puff, gathered at the elbows into long, tight cuffs, arranged to take off or on at will. This makes a stylish, fashionable gown to wear at any festive afternoon gathering by adding to the plain bodice a colored plastron of bengaline, surah or indeed any pretty silky fabric. Trim the edge of the plastron with a fine make of lace and cover the neckband with a lace ruffle. This will give a dressy effect to the entire gown if worn out of doors. The hat or bonnet must of course harmonize in color with the plastron. The same gown may be turned into a charming evening dress for wearing at a dinner party, the theater or an evening "at home" by replacing the plastron with a deep lace yoke, with epaulets of the same lace gathered full on the shoulders. The yoke is made in one with a high collar band and fastens behind with small hooks and eyes. The band may be draped with silk and a sash of the same silk worn round the waist, tied behind with a large bow and long ends, the ends trimmed with lace to match the yoke and epaulets. To give a more full dress effect for the evening the long cuffs may be removed, leaving the arms bare to the elbows.

SEPARATE YOKE.

The yoke illustrated is of butter colored guipure, bordered with narrow accordion plaiting of black mousseline de soie. The wrinkled collar is of silk.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

DRESS REFORM.

The Bicycle Is Largely Responsible For the Advanced Ideas.

It seems extremely probable that, among the other innovations for which the introduction of the bicycle is more or less directly responsible, there will have to be classified the adoption by women of the divided skirt. Heretofore there have been numerous tentative efforts by ladies with advanced ideas toward a change from the ordinary garment, the first achievements bringing up abruptly in the bloomer, the Turkish trousers and others. But the bloomer was too ugly for serious consideration, and the Turkish trousers were impracticable. The consequence has been that until the present the problem has been unsettled. Now, however, the bicycle has come, and with it a divided skirt which is already worn by a sufficient number of women to make its appearance on the streets no longer a matter for public marveling. The rapidity with which new ideas are assimilated in these revolutionary times is shown by the fact that today a woman in trousers riding a wheel excites little or no comment, while three years ago a woman in ordinary street costume on a bicycle was liable to be hissed and hooted at in the city streets. That men and women alike have the right to dress as they choose, so long as they keep within the bounds of decency, is a truth that is at last becoming recognized. It is a curious thing that prejudices in regard to articles of food and fashions of clothing are harder to overcome than those concerning the vital interests of humanity. As innovation is the ruling spirit of the age, however, it is to be hoped that we shall soon become so inured to novelty as to drop all attempts to coerce our neighbor in respect of his table, his wardrobe and his harmless amusements.

BICYCLE COSTUMES.

The sketch shows two bicycle costumes made of lightweight cloth. The first consists of a round waist and full skirt, the latter ending midway between the knee and ankle. Black hose and low shoes are worn. The second suit is less conventional, zouave trousers taking the place of a skirt and a belted tunic falling half way to the knee, forming the upper garment. Buttoned leggings and low shoes complete the costume.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Lack of Realism in Marble Angels.
The sculptors who delight in carving out full grown angels put little wings on them that would not support a big bird. The spread of the wing should be proportionate to size and weight. A body weighing 200 pounds should have a spread of wing 36 feet. The width of the wing should be about one-sixth the spread across.—Knoxville Sentinel.

One of the Old Families.

Japanese papers say that the oldest married couple in that country live in Sawada, in the province of Sado. The man is 133 years old and his wife 135. Of the family, numbering 14 persons, the eldest daughter is 108 years old and the eldest son 105.

NAMED AFTER PRESIDENTS.

Philadelphia Maintains Her Record for Patriotism in Nomenclature.

Of the twenty-three presidents of the United States John Adams has the largest number of namesakes, twenty-three in the Philadelphia directory. James Buchanan ranks next, twenty-one men of nearly as many vocations bearing the name of the only Pennsylvania president. There are fifteen Andrew Jacksons and fourteen Andrew Johnsons. The name of the father of this country is borne by eight day laborers, one caterer, two waiters, one janitor and one real estate dealer, or thirteen men in all.

The grandfather of Benjamin Harrison has three namesakes, while one laborer and one upholsterer have the name of Tippecanoe's grandson. There are four James Monroes and the same number called John Quincy Adams. One hostler, one puddler and a weaver are known as James Madison, and a bartender, a clerk and a superintendent answer to the name of Zachary Taylor. There is but one Thomas Jefferson, whose occupation is not given, and the only John Tyler is a weaver. A brakeman and a minister of the gospel are Franklin Pierces, but there is nobody with the name of Presidents Van Buren, Polk, Fillmore, Lincoln, Grant, Hayes, Garfield, Arthur, or Cleveland, except as a handle to the surname.

Burned to Life.

"While I was in Brussels a few years ago," said Dr. T. L. Taylor of Boston. "I witnessed a restoration from apparent drowning in one of the hospitals that struck me as rather remarkable. A man had been upset in a rowboat, and was only recovered after a considerable time. An eminent physician in the city applied all the remedies he could think of, but no sign of life manifested itself. As a forlorn hope, or last resort, the doctor proceeded to apply plates of iron, heated to a white heat, to the upper parts of the body, near the more vital organs. After a short time, to the utter astonishment of the assistants, faint signs of breathing were observed, and in course of half an hour the man came to life, and was finally fully restored, the only inconvenience sustained being the result of the severe cauterization which his skin necessarily underwent."

WINSLOW.

HILL HAS STAKED ALL

As was suggested before David B. Hill's nomination does not make the sailing any smoother for New York republicans. The probability still is that the republicans will carry New York, but they will not gain it by any such majority as they would have rolled up if any of the other men spoken of in connection with the candidacy had been nominated. Whitney would have made a fairly acceptable nominee, but Hill undoubtedly is the strongest candidate whom the democrats could have selected. The mugwump element of the party has not yet entirely overcome its hostility to the senator and Maynard's disastrous candidacy last year is still remembered, yet it is entirely safe to predict that he will get many votes this year which he could not have commanded at any time in the past. The tide, though, is so strongly and so persistently in favor of the republicans, that Hill, with all his resourcefulness, audacity and potency, can not turn it or check it. This is a crisis in Hill's career. His future is staked on the result of this battle. If, by his timely arrival in the fight, he chances to turn defeat into victory, no other name but his will be mentioned in the convention of 1896.

VITAL CHANGES PROPOSED.

The amendments drafted by the New York constitutional conventions are of interest in Wisconsin. They number thirty-two, and will be submitted at the November election, to take effect, if adopted, January 1, next. They prohibit gambling in every form, including bookmaking and pool-selling, abolish the office of coroners, require aliens to be naturalized ninety days before they can vote, prohibit public officers from taking passes, forbid convict contract labor, fix state and local elections for different years, provide for non-partisan election boards, take steps to preserve state forests, extend home rule for cities, limit local indebtedness, establish civil service rules, provide for a delay of at least three days in the passage of bills by the legislature, and make the speaker of the assembly next in order of succession to the lieutenant governor.

Why should Janesville pine for a patrol wagon? The police of Philadelphia now make raids in force by using the trolley cars, and the nefarious individuals who have been gathered in say the trick is about as surprising as a sudden cavalry charge.

It is related in the volume containing the diplomatic recollections of Lord Augustus Loftus that when a Chinese army was ordered to reestablish lish authority in one of the outlying provinces the march was delayed for three years, as crops had to be cultivated on the route to serve as rations. The world must make allowances for the deliberate side of the Chinese character.

DON'T TRUST IN BETRAYERS.

The New Orleans, "Picayune" assures the sugar-planters that the prospect of receiving the bounty on this year's sugar crop has steadily improved ever since the adjournment of congress. On the strength of this the planters are advised to help elect another congress of the same kind, but they seem to prefer one with some other claim on the gratitude of the people.

At first glance, it doesn't look as if Alix had done much in clipping barely a quarter of a second from the world's trotting record, but the importance of the triumph is evident when the fact is considered that it has taken fourteen years to lower the record of fourteen seconds.

John C. Spooner will have as large an audience next Saturday evening as any Janesville hall will hold. State issues are important this year and Spooner knows more about them than any man in the country.

Senator Hill voted with the republicans in congress on the most important question of the session. As this seems to have made him popular in New York, the St. Louis Globe Democrat thinks he ought to keep it up and vote for Morton.

With the fighting Japs on its eastern shores and the czar stretching a railway across its vast expanse on the north, Asia may prepare to awake from its long slumber and hustle with the rest of the world.

CAPT. DUGAN FOUND HIS LOST RING

Accidentally Uncovered a Trinket That Came Off at the Fire.

Captain Dugan of the east side hose company, lost a gold ring from his finger when he was knocked down by a stream of water at Friday morning's fire. He was then at work in the feed store building, and gave up the ring as lost. This morning he was surveying the ruins and kicked over a little half burned straw when up turned his ring. Some one had stepped on it, jamming it almost flat, but otherwise it was not injured.

Colder With Rain.

Min. . . . 50 above.
Wind, south.

Phelps-Dann.

Probably few Janesville people are aware that Byron Phelps, formerly of this city but now of Whitewater, is a benedict, but according to the Register, it is true. That paper says: "The young friends of Byron Phelps and Ella Dann, have learned with interest and surprise that they were married last March in Milwaukee. Congratulations are always in order, after you find a thing out."

NO PRIVATE MARKS ON STOLEN KNIVES

THEREFORE OFFICERS CANNOT RECOVER MUCH PLUNDER.

Rock County Merchants Hardly Able to Identify the Swag Found at De Kalb—Man Got Away With Most of It—Result of Chief Acheson's Visit.

THERE is little chance that Rock county merchants will recover much of the plunder stolen by the gang of thieves who were located at De Kalb. Chief of Police Acheson visited that city yesterday, and says that one man who had a peck of knives, etc. in a sack, eluded the officers. The chief brought back three revolvers and several razors, but the Rock county losers will have hard work to identify the plunder, as the merchants all bought goods of the same houses, and private marks were not used. When Chief Acheson described two tramps who were liberated from the Rock county jail some time ago, the De Kalb marshal recognized them as two of the crowd who were there with cutlery in their possession.

THE Flints, mesmerists and hypnotists, appeared at the Grand last evening in their unique entertainment and caused side-splitting merriment by the ridiculous antics of well known residents under the powerful influence of the mysterious mesmerism and hypnotism. Dr. Herbert L. Flint is ably assisted by his charming daughter Marina, who is very successful with all of the subjects.

The entertainment is a novelty so much out of the general run as to be surprising. Those who were operated upon were well known young people and there presence and conduct permits no doubt that the work was "on the square." They were James Jenkins, Henry Grier and John Leonard. The first was fixed so that he could not talk at one time; Grier forgot his name and Miss Flint cruelly gave Leonard a very painful stomach ache. All three were made to laugh at one time until they fell from their chairs and it is miraculous that they escaped without broken bones.—Oshkosh Times, August 28.

MISS E. V. CORNELIUS, whose profession is that of teaching music, has proven herself to be a teacher of rare ability and deserves the patronage which she now enjoys. During several years' study in America and abroad, Miss Cornelius attended over four hundred musical lectures and has spared no pains to study various branches of the musical art, which has served to broaden her views and to make her more proficient in her chosen profession.

ENGINEER A. WILKINSON of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul made a fast trip to Beloit and back the other day. Thirty miles was covered in fifty-five minutes including the making of three stops each way and turning the engine around at Beloit. The fast trip was made with a car of horses that had to be here for the races. Conductor J. B. Callahan had charge of the train and George Richardson and Frank McConnell were his brakemen.

Don't think you can hide that dirty shirt front with that necktie. It will show on the sides, then again, it is too warm to keep your coat on and your shirt would not present a very clean appearance. Better take it to the Riverside Steam Laundry, where such excellent work is done especially since they are rebuilt.

GIRL IN A TRANCE AND CAN'T BE WAKED

PECULIAR CASE OF ETHEL
BRIGGS EXCITES WONDER.

She Is Thought to Have Been Hypnotized By a Young Man Who May Have Abused Her and Left Her Under the Spell—Dr. Flint Unsuccessful.

Wide-spread interest centers in the "Ethel Briggs hypnotism case" in which Ethel Briggs was mistreated at Eau Claire, and in which Dr. Flint, the mesmerist, is taking a hand. The Eau Claire Leader says that the New York Recorder telegraphed the editor of the Leader for full account of the "Ethel Briggs hypnotism case" and the Associated Press reporter and the special correspondents there have received time and time again notices to forward any new details. The case is a peculiar one and is not an advertising dodge for Dr. Flint.

The girl is E. Mabel Briggs of 608 Forest street, the daughter of Joseph M. Briggs, engineer for the Eau Claire water works company. She is of prepossessing appearance, young and quite a student of music. She also gives lessons in music and for a short time the son of Dr. G. W. Pickin, of 314 Water street, Aggie Pickin, was her student. The two fell in love, but Pickin's attentions were not looked upon with favor by Miss Briggs' parents. The girl frequently visited him at his home and they met clandestinely at various places. When Dr. Flint was there the last time Miss Briggs went upon the stage and proved an easy subject for hypnotism. After the doctor went away mesmerism became quite a fad with the circle in which young Pickin and the girl moved.

A Particularly Good "Subject." Pickin has told how successful efforts had been made by some of her young lady friends to mesmerize Mabel in his presence. The young girl could easily be made rigid enough to lay upon two chairs.

Mr. Briggs forbids Pickin coming to the house and also forbids Mabel to have any more dealings with him. Mabel disregarded the wishes of her father and mother. A domestic storm broke and Mabel was threatened with severe punishment unless she complied with her father's advice, and Mr. Briggs also vowed vengeance on Pickin. About the 1st of September Mabel was absent from home a day and a night and was at length found by her father with Pickin. There was again a scene and Mabel has been kept under close surveillance by her folks. Since this time the rumors have spread and have assumed all kinds of shapes. From the Atlantic to the Pacific the news of "a strange case at Eau Claire" has gone, a case wherein hypnotism plays a leading part. It is said that Pickin has been able to hypnotize Mabel and that she remains in the hypnotic state. At this the young man laughs. The girl has been under the care of a physician, but who refuses to give publicity to the matter.

Flint Cannot Restore Her. Just why Dr. Flint was summoned is not known, but his coming has added much to the sensational side of the whole story. It has leaked out that Dr. Flint spent some three hours with the patient. He was able to arouse her for a brief period, but stated that it was fully beyond his power to fully restore her faculties. She must be brought in contact with the person who "controlled" her; or the influence might wear off, or some slight shock might awaken her. Dr. Flint states she is both hypnotized and mesmerized. At present she is in a somewhat dazed condition, eating and sleeping mechanically. A person will speak to her and while she will answer she does not do so with ready recognition. Ordinarily she is a bright, cheerful and pleasing girl, and is only about sixteen or seventeen years of age. After her absence from home at the time stated and when her father took her from the young man, he would have then and there taken "satisfaction" had he not been restrained by Police-man Franstad. The young man in view of Mr. Briggs' statement has also armed himself.

The Wonder of the Country. We will commence a three days' hat sale next Monday morning, that will open the eyes of the entire people throughout southern Wisconsin. While in Chicago this week we purchased a lot of the finest hats we ever saw, at prices less than we ever knew such hats could be sold for, and we will sell at prices never before thought of in this section. See fourth page. T. J. ZIEGLER.

Commenced to Manufacture. Having gone into the manufacture of parlor furniture, lounges and couches, I intend giving my customers the benefit of low prices. On and after October 1, I will offer at retail, all upholstered goods at strictly whole sale prices. I have the largest, finest and newest stock of upholstered goods ever offered in this city, at prices no retail store can offer them. W. H. ASHCRAFT.

National Labor Commissioner Wright.
National Labor Commissioner Carroll D. Wright was born in Dunbarton, N. H., on July 25, 1840, and was studying law when the war broke out. The national bureau of labor was established in 1885, and Colonel Wright was selected as its first commissioner.

Vice President Wickes.
From an English farm to the second vice presidency of the Pullman Palace Car company is the life step thus far taken by Thomas H. Wickes, whose name was prominently before the public as the spokesman for George M. Pullman during the labor troubles in Chicago. Mr. Wickes was born in Leicestershire, England, 48 years ago. In 1866 he came to America and for two years lived in Canada. Then he crossed the border to the United States and in 1868 entered the employ of the Pullman company. His first engagement was in the capacity of assistant to the ticket agent at East St. Louis, Ills. This was a very modest beginning, but his advancement was rapid, and in 1889 he was elected second vice president and was placed in charge of the operating department.

A Brooklyn man has invented a bullet proof coat that he wears and allows riflemen to shoot at. He is W. J. F. Lennard, a stairbuilder and an all round inventor. The material is a combination of cotton, wood, wool and felt treated chemically. There is no steel, copper, brass, nickel or any kind of metal plate in it. There are three plates of the composition in the shield at a little distance apart from each other.

A Disputed Case.
Many persons dispute the question as to whether or not baldness caused either by disease or neglect can be cured. In deciding the question allow us to say that most cases can be cured, while others can not. Only a specialist of years of experience can tell this. Professor Birkholz, the world-renowned German specialist of the Masonic Temple, Chicago, where those who desire a good head of hair or beard can consult him in private, and free of charge. After a thorough examination, which costs you nothing, we will tell you whether or not you may procure that trait of personal adornment so necessary to your existence, and if we find that the follicles are not all dead, we will treat you and guarantee the results or ask no pay. Call on or address Professor Birkholz, 1011 Masonic Temple, Chicago, Ill.

Trick of the Cigar Trade.
There is a little trick in the cigar business to which some dealers will confess good naturedly if you ask them about it. The dealers will display a card in a box announcing that the cigar is sold for twenty cents; $19.50 a hundred. The extremely innocent person would suppose that the dealer could not expect to sell many of those cigars at wholesale when a buyer of 100 would save only one-half a cent on each cigar. Well, the dealer doesn't expect to sell them by wholesale, and he doesn't sell them, but he knows that it just tickles a smoker to death to think that he is getting a single cigar for practically what it would cost him if he bought a ship load of them.

A Monster Lamp.
The Echo des Mines announces the invention by a young Belgian of a lamp such as has never been seen before. The lamp is composed of 3,000 pieces. It is six feet high and measures three feet ten inches in diameter. Its light is so strong that one can read by it a distance of 600 feet. The lamp is fed with lard oil, and the consumption is said to be very small.

A SURGEON'S KNIFE
gives you a feeling of horror and dread. There is no longer necessity for its use in many diseases formerly regarded as incurable without cutting.
The Triumph of Conservative Surgery is well illustrated by the fact that RUPTURE or Breach, is now radically cured without the knife and without pain. Clumsy, chafing trusses can be thrown away! They never cure but often induce inflammation, strangulation and death.
TUMORS Ovarian, Fibroid (Uterine) and many others, are now removed without the perils of cutting operations.
PILE TUMORS, however large, and other diseases of the lower bowel, are permanently cured without pain or resort to the knife.
STONE in the Bladder, no matter how large, is crushed, pulverized, washed out and perfectly removed without cutting.
STRICTURE of Urinary Passage is also removed without cutting in hundreds of cases. For pamphlet, references and all particulars, send 10 cents (in stamps) to World's Dispensary Medical Association, 663 Main St., Buffalo, N. Y.

"It is remarkable how your trip abroad has improved you." "It is the use of the Carlsbad Waters that has improved me, more than my trip abroad. I have gained in flesh and strength since I used them. Many persons use them for reducing flesh, because the waters remove all unhealthy tissues and superabundance of fat, but they also build up firm and solid flesh, which is a sign of perfect health. I also use the Carlsbad Sprudel Salt early in the morning with a glass full of water. It increases the laxative action of the same. BRIEF BITS OF HUMOR.

How He Lost a Patient.

"Doctor, I believe there is something the matter with my brain," began the society young man.

"Er—did you bring it with you?" asked the absent-minded physician, and before he awoke the young man had fled.—Indianapolis Journal.

THE PARTING WAS PAIN.

She—Go, Demetrius, go! When you have reached years of discretion you will feel that I am doing the right thing by you in rejecting your plea. You will then know that an establishment cannot be kept up upon a piece of chewing gum, an elevated railroad ticket and a top!—Life.

From the German.

Agentleman who had just returned after an absence of a few months, meeting a friend on the street, said: "I regret to hear that you and Miss Schmidt have nothing more to do with each other."

"Yes, that's so," was the sorrowful reply.

"What's the cause?"

"We got married about two months ago."

Not the Right Place.

Salesman—Why don't you try these stockings, ma'am? We warrant them not to crock.

Mrs. Shopleigh—Where were they made?

Salesman—In Philadelphia.

Mrs. Shopleigh—And do you suppose they know anything about fast colors there?—N. Y. World.

Sad Case of Mistaken Identity.

Little Walter and his sister Helen sleep in separate beds in the same room. One night Walter called out: "Papa, sister has fallen out of bed!"

As papa appeared upon the scene, Walter, now evidently awake, said: "Oh, it is me!" And so it was.—Youth's Companion.

Caught.

Mr. Slipper—Do you know that ice-cream, instead of making one cooler, makes one warmer?

Pretty Girl—When did you hear that?

"I have known it for years."

"Humph! Strange that you did not think to mention it last winter."—N. Y. Weekly.

A Soldier Bold.

Ethel—Cousin Lou, is Col. Brasser a brave soldier?

Cousin Lou—Oh, I guess he isn't afraid of the smell of powder.

Ethel—No, I guess not; for I saw his nose against your face last night.—Brooklyn Life.

Special Assessment Tax Notice.

To whom it may concern:—The special tax rolls for the paving of South River street, between Milwaukee and Pleasant street, and south Main street between Milwaukee and South First street, and the warrant for the collection of the same, are now in my hands for collection. All persons interested are requested to make payment of the same at the office of the city treasurer, or the same will be collected at the cost and expense of the persons liable for the payment of said special tax.

Dated this 11th day of September 1894.

JAMES A. FATHERS,
City Treasurer.

"Hail to the Chief."

This half the title of an old song. The balance is, "Who in triumph advances." The public, the press and the medical profession chant this refrain as especially applicable to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, chief among American remedies and preventatives for malaria, constipation, dyspepsia, liver complaint, nervousness, quiet sleep, rheumatic twinges, and the troubles incident to advanced age. It is also incident to advanced age. It is also universally recognized as a reliable tonic and appetizer. As a family medicine particularly suitable to emergencies it has no equal. The nervous, the feeble seek its aid, and the happiest results follow. The convalescent, the aged and the infirm derive infinite benefit from its use. Against the influences of impure air, bad water, unaccustomed food, overwork and exposure it is a genuine preventive.

SURROUNDED BY MYSTERY!

A Great Mistake.

A recent discovery is that headache, dizziness, dullness, confusion of the mind, etc., are due to derangement of the nerve centers which supply the brain with nerve force; that indigestion, dyspepsia, neuralgia, wind in stomach, etc., arise from the derangement of the nerve centers supplying these organs with nerve fluid or force. This is likewise true of many diseases of the heart and lungs. The nerve system is like a telegraph system, as will be seen by the accompanying cut. The little white lines are the nerves which convey the nerve force from the nerve centers to every part of the body, just as the electric currents conveyed along the telegraph wires to every station, large or small. Ordinary physicians fail to regard this fact; instead of treating the nerve centers for the cause of the disorders arising therefrom they treat the part affected.

Franklin Miles, M. D., L.L.B., the highly celebrated specialist and student of nervous diseases, and author of many noted treatises on the latter subject, long since realized the truth of the first statement, and his Restorative Nerve is prepared on that principle. Its success in curing all diseases arising from derangement of the nervous system is wonderful, as the thousands of unsolicited testimonials in possession of the company manufacturing the remedy amply prove.

Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve is a reliable remedy for all nervous diseases, such as headache, nervous debility, prostration, sleeplessness, dizziness, hysteria, sexual debility, St. Vitus dance, epilepsy, etc. It is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee, and directed by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. Restorative Nerve positively contains no opiates or dangerous drugs.

Is a Tea that has no equal in any 50 cent tea in the market. It is pure, uncolored and much better than some Japan teas which we might name that are now being offered to the public.

35c a Pound, 3 Pounds for $1.

Buy no other until you have tried this. We just received it. Had hard work to get it so as to sell for 35c a pound or 3 pounds for one dollar. We will put it against any 50c tea in the market, unless perhaps it is our famous which we are giving Silverware away with. We have the only GENUINE Monarch Tea in Janesville. Some tea resembles the Monarch very much and if a person is not a good judge, in fact an expert, they will get fooled, and think they have the Monarch.
